5th Sunday In Ordinary Time

4 February 2018

Your voice will make a difference.

Welcome to our celebration of God's unconditional love for us. We gather as God's people, the Body of Christ, the Church.

The sick and the vulnerable hold a special place in the heart of Jesus. He heals them. He stands with them.

As disciples of Christ we are called to stand with the vulnerable in our society. To be their voice when they cannot speak.

Submissions are now open on the End of Life Choice Bill. Please consider making a submission.

Your voice will make a difference.

Your voice will make a difference.

The New Zealand Bishops have asked Catholics to make a submission to the Justice Select Committee opposing MP David Seymour's 'End of Life Choice' Bill. If this Bill passes through Parliament, euthanasia and assisted suicide will become legal in our country.

YOUR VOICE
WILL MAKE A
DIFFERENCE.

EACH OF YOU
CAN MAKE A
DIFFERENCE.

So ... make a submission! The voiceless and the vulnerable need you to speak for them.
